EL PASO, TEXAS – The El Paso Police Department’s Crimes Against Persons (CAP) unit is seeking the community’s assistance in locating a missing and unaccounted for family of four. On Friday, November 15, 2013 at 2:23 p.m., officers assigned to the Westside Regional Command responded to a residence in the 7300 block of Cerro Negro Dr. Officers arrived and found that Jeffrey Farrey, Jenna Farrey, Blake Farrey, and Jackson Farrey were absent from the home and unaccounted for. Investigators are seeking the communities’ assistance in locating the Farrey family. The Farrey family vehicle, a dark blue or black, 2007 Dodge Charger was not at the residence and is also unaccounted for. Jeffrey Farrey is described as a male, 5’10” tall, weighing 150 pounds, short blond hair, hazel eyes, and a light complexion. Jenna Farrey is described as a female, 5’7” tall, weighing 190 pounds, waist length hair, and a light complexion. Blake Farrey is described as a 17-month old with short hair, and a light complexion. Jackson Farrey is described as a 5-month old infant with short hair, and a light complexion. Investigators determined that the family dog is also missing from the residence. Any person who has seen any of the Farrey family members or the described vehicle is asked to contact police immediately at 915-832-4400.
